THE PROPERTY

The subjects comprise the Former East Morton Street School (latterly used as part of Wallace Hall Primary School), the former Caretakers House, an open shelter, sandstone store and land.

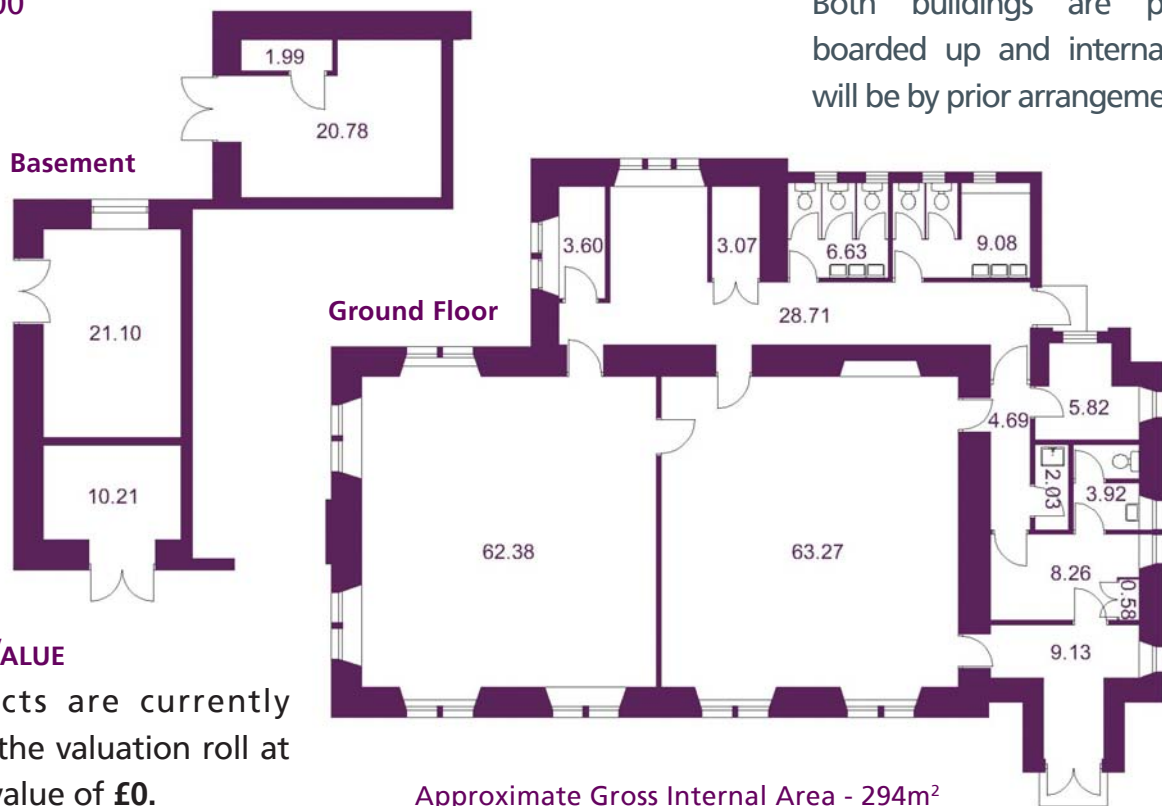

The former School building has been unused since the new Wallace Hall Academy and Primary Schools opened in early 2010, the Caretakers House is believed to have been unused since mid 2003. The School and Caretakers House were built in the 1860's, of pink ashlar (dressed sandstone) construction with slated roofs, and are both Category B Listed.

Both buildings are presently boarded up and internal access will be by prior arrangement only.
